Mss. A.6.2.21.158A

184

Rebuke from you,
for Christ's sake as the Redeemer of Man from the sin of Slavery among the
Red. The Lord will Assist you. Pray Diligently. Who is devoting his life to the advancement.

I forward at this time a copy of
"The Liberty Bell"

Very interesting
Letter of Mrs Chapman

the Phrenological Journal of Lectures in the United States, - because in D I have adver-
ted, (page 319) to the casting out, to prostrate a Shakespeare nothing, of the supplicating slave from the pressure of dust, whose appearance there in Chapin's great picture of We hailed (see p. 318) with so much joy in 1844.

I entreat permission to add a copy of the

Ms. A. 9.2.21.158A